THE HARVEST

CONTINUING THE HARVEST

Dear Friends,

Once again, we reach out with grateful hearts to say, “Thank you!”

Thank you for your generous contributions to the mission and vision of Jesus Film Harvest Partners!

Your support continues to empower the spread of the gospel worldwide, transforming the lives of individuals and thus families and communities.

We also want to take this moment and express our deepest appreciation to Brian Helstrom as he steps away from the helm as Executive Director of JFHP. His incredible leadership for more than 25 years combined with your passionate giving are key reasons for the transformations seen.

Brian’s dedication has left an indelible mark, and we wish him the fullness of God’s grace in his next chapter. Using Brian’s own words, we say to him, “You get the thanks, but God gets the glory.”

Together we are making an eternal impact—thank you so much for being such a big part of our piece of the Great Commission!

With heartfelt gratitude,

Bryon Hemphill,

JFHP Board of Directors Chairman

FUTURE FOCUS

What's happening in 2025

Dear Partners,

Throughout the remainder of 2025, 1,117 JESUS Film Teams will be working in 67 countries around the world, making connections in remote areas and showing the JESUS film. This includes two new countries in the Eurasia region: Italy and Spain. It is our great joy that the new teams in these countries will share Jesus across this area of the world and reach new groups of people with the gospel!

We have reports and testimonies coming in that show how the Lord is moving in and through His JESUS Film Teams to help new believers learn what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. God called them and they responded!

What part will you play this year?

Come and join in the harvest God has placed in front of His JESUS Film Teams by helping to provide necessary resources and be part of a movement that frees people from sin and darkness and calls them to the light of Christ.

We are excited about what God will help us accomplish together in 2025!

Daniel Herrera,
Field Services Director
